Microsoft Teams

8:15 am – 8:30 am

I. Provost Donna Arnett

- Welcome Back

II. Claire Robinson

- Advising Updates

III. Shout-out for academic excellence

Today, I would like to recognize the Arnold School of Public Health and the College of Hospitality, Retail, and Sport Management for their work in creating a robust environment for training future professionals in sport sciences.

- 2024 Inspiring Programs in Business awards given to two DMSB programs led by the Office of Access, Opportunity, and Community Engagement
- These programs are the Rising Scholars Program and Business Success Academy
  - Rising Scholars program: enhance SC representation; connects underrepresented students in the Moore School with opportunities and resources on campus. Cohort program for freshmen
  - Business Success Academy: five-day residential program for rising high school juniors and seniors in South Carolina; provides insight into being a Moore School student as well as a view of many aspects of business. High-level, focused instruction in core business courses (accounting, economics, data analytics, business communications). Makes students eligible for DMSB scholarship

- Inspiring Programs in Business is for business schools that encourage, support, and give opportunities to underrepresented students interested in pursuing a career in business.
- The DMSB will be recognized for winning these awards in the April 2024 Business School issue of Insight Into Diversity magazine.

Thank you to Dean Rohit Verma, staff of Access, Opportunity, and Community Engagement, and associated faculty and staff.
