

MEDIA ARTS

The home to a vibrant community of filmmakers, animators, game designers, screenwriters, and artists working in emergent digital art forms.

Unleash Your Creativity in a Changing Media Landscape

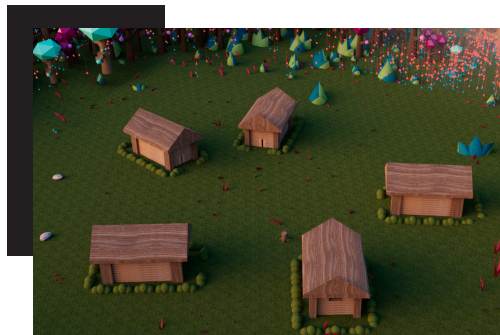

- Our students acquire versatile skills that empower them to navigate the evolving world of media. Embrace the opportunity to diversify your creative portfolio while honing your specialization. Whether your passion lies in cinematography, screenwriting, game design, or animation, we equip you to be an agile, independent artist capable of forging your unique career path.

Connect with Industry Leaders

- Our seniors intern at major media companies, paving the way for successful careers in TV, movies, government, and freelance media production. Join a network of influential alumni working at Netflix, Blizzard, Marvel, IBM, iD Software, Turner Broadcasting, HBO, Showtime, Nickelodeon, Amazon Studios, CBS, and NBC. Our graduates are self-starters, global creatives, and local media pioneers.

Experience a Diverse Curriculum

- Delve into media arts classes that address a spectrum of concepts, skills, and ideas. The BA in Media Arts offers students opportunities to learn about: television pilot design and feature film screenwriting; manga writing; cinematography and lighting design; narrative filmmaking and directing actors for the camera; documentary filmmaking and ethical representation; experimental film and photographic techniques; the study of comics, film and media history, and African American film and television; sound art and emerging forms of virtual reality and augmented reality; and so much more.
